I'm an experienced product designer (UX, UI, IxD) based in San Francisco. I'm a problem solver by heart and have embedded myself in design and technology for over a decade. I've delivered and led design efforts across diverse products and industries. I love building useful tools and delightful experiences with kind, smart people.

EXPERIENCE

Dispatch Logistics

CEO & Founder

AUG 2017 - CURRENT

Our team worked to streamline wholesale distribution, from order entry to delivery. I led user research, product design, product management, and operations, working to power up the supply chain.

Pivotal Labs
